

Visiting The Jewish Cemetery in Leckava

by Aleksandrs Feigmanis

The Leckava Cemetery is located 200 meters to the left from the Mazeikiai -Leckava road, about 200 meters before the sign announcing the name of the town of Leckava.

Rahel bat Yehuda HaCohen

Gite bat Yehoshua Zelik, died 1882

These are the names I found in the Jewish Cemetery in Leckava, Lithuania. While most of the names were styled in the traditional fashion, giving the deceased's first name, followed by son or daughter of, and then the father's name, there were a few surnames including: Aronstamm, Fisher, Segal, and Rabinovitz.
